SWE Atlanta December Meeting
WOW! That's Engineering Update

Networking Opportunities

December Meeting - Wednesday December 14th 7pm

Clothing Exchange!

Angela Mitchell's House in Sandy Springs (address will be provided to confirmed attendees)

Cleaning out your closet to make room for your winter clothes? Find yourself looking at your closet every day and thinking you've got nothing to wear? LET's shake things up with a clothing exchange! Bring the clothes that you're not wearing anymore, particularly work clothes, and take home clothes from others to revitalize your wardrobe! Leftover items will be donated to Dress for Success. We'll network over food and drinks while we discuss workplace fashion. The cost is $10 since this event will include dinner. Please visit the website to register for the event and contact Angela Mitchell at angela.g.mitchell@kcc.com with additional questions.

Volunteer Opportunities

SWE Atlanta's "WOW! That's Engineering" Update

WOW! was a great success! We had over 70 6th-8th grade girls in attendance with approximately 40 parents who participated in the Parent Program. The girls enjoyed four hands-on activities that included learning about chromatography, plastics and polymers needed to create bouncy balls, the chemistry involved in making ice cream, and teamwork and critical thinking skills required to build a lunar lander module to protect astronauts. Thank you to all who helped make this event a success, and please visit this website to see event photos.

Have a great week!
